Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Letters for the People, on the Present Crisis My Dear Friend: In reply to your letter, requesting me to give you my opinions of the signs of the times, and the bearings of the great national questions just, now to be settled, as they have been presented to my view at this point, - a point so deeply interested in both the subjects you inquire about, - I shall, for my own satisfaction, as well as to arrive at actual facts, give them a practical and minute, as well as philosophical examination. Highly as you estimate the importance of these questions, you can not, and no man can, calculate a tenth of the influence they will exert to bless our land, if settled aright. We are passing a crisis, and, if our country and our Congress do their duty to themselves, to universal humanity, and to God, all will be well. You inquire, How large in Nebraska? What are its soil and climate? Will it be admitted as a Territory this winter? Will it be...
