Createspace, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Wenesday Ketron was an active, able-bodied mom. Her world turned upside down when she found herself face down on the bathroom floor, unable to move her legs, or even wiggle her toes. Wenesday had Guillain-Barre Syndrome. In this book, Wenesday describes what it is like to have GBS. This is a beautifully written, comprehensive overview of GBS as experienced through the eyes of a survivor. She chronicles her journey, including incredible physical and emotional pain, with a sense of humor. This book takes the reader on the journey with Wenesday, from initial diagnosis through the recovery process. This is an inspirational true story of pain, fear, sadness, hope, perseverance, faith, hard work, and love. It is a must read with a happy ending. In this story, the reader is able to accompany Wenesday as she climbs mountains, both figuratively and literally, and triumphs over the crazy autoimmune response that changed her body and opened her eyes to the abundant beauty around her. Wenesday currently resides in Jackson, TN with her husband, Greg; their daughters, Kayla and Sarah Grace; and their canine children, Kona and Cindy. She is a full-time mom pursuing her dream of becoming a teacher.
