

Surviving Amber

By Calder, Charlotte

Pan Macmillan, Sydney, NSW, Australia, 2006. Medium Trade Paperback. Book Condition: New. 274 pages. Multiple copies of this title available. Heath's island world is turned upside down when sophisticated cousin Amber and her dysfunctional family come to stay. Life on the remote farm is devoid of funky shops, clubs, proper TV reception and emails, and the bored and arrogant Amber soon makes Heath's existence hell-at school as well as at home. As tensions mount between the two girls, it seems the only thing they can agree on are the two European backpacker friends that Amber has made-one of whom is the gorgeous Jamal. Or is Amber going to ruin Heath's love life too? It's only when a group camping expedition to a remote beach starts to go disastrously wrong that Heath and Amber have to decide whether blood really is thicker than water. Quantity Available: 9.
