THE GENTLEMANS MAGAZINE VOLUME 11

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 102 pages. Original publisher: Washington : U. S. G. P. O. : For sale by the Supt. of Docs. , U. S. G. P. O. , 2004. LC Number: KF27 . P89627 2004b OCLC Number: ocm58958208 Excerpt: . . . 9 including U. S. flag lines that operate in the trade. The Commission will discuss these petitions and comments in the very near future. As you know, the Shipping Act permits ocean common carriers to enter into service contracts with one or more shippers. OSRA permitted these contracts to be filed confidentially with the Commission. Indeed, since OSRA's implementation, ocean common carriers report that 80 percent or more of their liner cargo moves under service contracts. While non-vessel-operating common carriers may enter into service contracts as shippers with ocean carriers, the Act does not grant NVOs the right to offer service contracts in their capacity as carriers with their shipping customers. Six NVOs and one national trade association representing NVOs have filed separate petitions with the Commission seeking some type of relief from this prohibition, either through individual exemptions or special rule-making. The Commission received many comments in response to the petitions from all segments of the industry and Congress. Thank you, Mr. Chairman, for your comments in this matter, and thanks to the other members who submitted comments as well. The scope of the issues and options presented, and the high level of interest by the shipping public in these issues underscores the significance of any action or inaction on the Commission's part in this manner. We will consider the comments and petitions as expeditiously as possible during this year. Last year I reported to you that the Commission has been considering changes to its oversight functions...
