Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Bulletin of the American Library Association, Vol. 12: January-November, 1918 The Fortieth Conference of the American Library Association will be held at Saratoga Springs, New York, from Monday to Saturday, July 1-6, 1918. Headquarters will be at the Grand Union Hotel (1200 rooms, rates, $5, $6 and $7 per day, American plan). Numerous smaller and less expensive hotels will be available; names and rates will be announced in the May Bulletin and in the library periodicals. Directions will then be given for making reservations. The Program The theme of the program will naturally be the war and what libraries and librarians are doing and can do to help win it. Five general sessions will be held, the first Monday evening, July 1, at which President Montgomery will deliver the Presidents address. An informal reception will follow. At the second session, on the morning of July 2, the War Service committee will present a comprehensive report of the war work. The third session, on the morning of July 3, will take the form of a symposium on...
